bed, discussing the pending divorce action with her for about 10 minutes.

Hears Shots

"I got up from my bed to answer the telephone. I had just picked up the receiver when I heard six shots. I screamed into the phone for help and went to mother's bedroom.

"Mamma was on the floor and daddy was standing near her in the hallway. I tried to go to her, but daddy told me to let her alone.

"Mamma didn't make any noise, but just laid there on her back and bit her lips in pain.

"Daddy told me to take off that hat. I told him 'Get out, get out,' but he wouldn't. I went back to the phone to call police when I heard four more shots. Then I saw daddy on the floor beside mamma.

"He screamed for me or Barbara to shoot him because he was in pain."

Barricade

Barbara and the Burches had used a dresser to barricade themselves in the bedroom occupied by the young couple when White came in.

"We were afraid of him. He didn't like Charlene or me. He had threatened Mrs. White and us before," said Burch.

Officers found the bodies of the couple side-by-side on the bedroom floor. She was clad in pajamas and underwear.

The woman had suffered one bullet wound in the chest and four in the left side and upper left arm. He had one wound in the center of the chest.

A .32-calibre revolver was by his head.

Mrs. White had put her house up for sale and had been planning to move with the younger daughters to the home of relatives in Oklahoma.

They had lived at the Roslin Ave. address about a year.

'Other Woman'

The Whites became estranged when, according to Patricia, "daddy began seeing another woman."

The older girls became hysterical when the woman's body was removed and were given sedatives by a physician who had pronounced the couple dead.

brothers. Three capsules of heroin were grabbed from the 15-year-old boy when he tried to swallow them, deputies said.

The mother of the Roberts at whose home all of them lived, claimed she had no knowledge of their activities.

Mrs. Pugh told officers that she was arrested with her husband for carrying one-half ounce of heroin into the United States from Tijuana in May. Her husband is serving time in a federal penitentiary, she said. She has a 2-year-old baby, according to police. Mrs. Pugh worked a car-hop.

Mrs. Roberts stated that her husband is serving a sentence for forgery at the Sheriff's Wayside Honor Farm. Mrs. Roberts was unemployed.

Both girls were sullen and uncooperative upon arrest, according to Capt. Irving.

The 15-year-old boy was completely familiar with the narcotics routine and the language. Capt. Irving stated, and the younger boy was following in his brother's footsteps.

modern redwood signs on the park grounds. One of the signs will be specially for the Alondra swimming pool, which is one of the most popular in the entire state. On Sunday, July 17, 4000 persons were admitted to the Alondra pool, indicating its popularity. Hahn stated.

The park, which contains 189 acres, is the largest park in Los Angeles, and serves a populous area of southwestern Los Angeles, including Torrance and surrounding communities.
